

I am opposed to any relaxing of the rules regarding broadcast ownership. We have seen that relaxation of the rules that has already taken place has significantly reduced the variety and quality of the broadcast media. Further relaxation of these rules will limit public knowledge and debate on critical issues and will thus impede the workings of democracy.